

Camera Check Out Agreement

As a member of the Yearbook class, students will be checking out cameras for the period or for part of the day (lunch time, after school, other classes, etc). This is essential for the production of the yearbook. When students check out a camera, they are responsible for the camera in their care. Students are responsible to ¹keep it in their possession at all times to avoid loss or theft, ²treat the camera with care and in an appropriate manner, and ³to return the camera to the teacher as scheduled. Cameras should never go home unless pre-authorized by the teacher. If the teacher can not be found after school, students should take the camera to the office and ask that it be placed in Mr. Christensen's box.

I/we are aware of the appropriate use and conditions of using and checking out the yearbook cameras and agree to follow the policy above.
