

LEWIS MIDDLE SCHOOL
WEEKLY BULLETIN
January 21, 2008

MONDAY 21 ST	No school	Martin Luther King Day
TUESDAY 22 ND
WEDNESDAY 23 RD	6:30 pm	Foundation Meeting-Room 501
THURSDAY 24 TH	8:30 am	Foster/Marvin Elem. tour of Lewis campus
FRIDAY 25 TH	8:15 am All day	Hearst Elem. tour Lewis campus Single Site Plan Retreat-Library
ON THE HORIZON 28 TH 30 TH 1 ST	All day 2:30 pm 6:00 pm 7:00 am 11:30 am	Science Fair-Auditorium-All week long Department Meetings 8 th Grade Parent Information-Auditorium Breakfast-Support Staff Minimum Day Grading Period Ends

STUDENT NEWS

SAGGING PANTS are becoming a problem on this campus. Students caught sagging will receive automatic trash pick up at lunch and a zip tie on the spot. Repeat offenders will have after school detention and a call home. Please use better judgment when picking out clothes for school. (Front Office)

JMUN STUDENTS: All JMUN students are to report to their country advisors in the assigned classrooms (NOT THE LIBRARY) on Friday, January 25th at the beginning of 7/8 grade KBAR and 6th grade period 4. All students must report to their KBAR or period 4 teacher first, and then report to their assigned classroom by the beginning of the period. All students must bring their binders! (Mr. Nelson)

Valentine's Day Dance: will be Thursday, February 14, from 2:15 pm – 3:15 pm. Tickets will go on sale February 5. (Mr. Wright)

Lewis Book Club: The next meeting will be during lunch on Wednesday, January 30th. We will be discussing "The Boy in the Striped Pajamas." Don't forget to bring in a few titles for Mrs. Kelley to choose from for our next book. New members always welcomed. (C. Kelley)

YEARBOOKS: Only two weeks left to reserve your yearbook at the low discounted price of $27. After February 1st, the price will increase. Take advantage and don't miss out. Bring your money to the financial office soon. (Mr. Christensen)

